

Markets nosedive over concern world economy on brink of recession. Page B1

The Gazette

MONTREAL | FRIDAY, AUGUST 5, 2011 | SINCE 1778 | BREAKING NEWS AT MONTREALGAZETTE.COM

A DIVISION OF POSTMEDIA NETWORK INC.

SPORTS FINAL

SLOW ROAD TO ANSWERS ON INFRASTRUCTURE CRISIS

BRYANNA BRADLEY THE GAZETTE

Deputy transportation minister Anne-Marie Leclerc, Transport Minister Sam Hamad, and Transport Quebec's Montreal director Maroun Shaneen at a news conference yesterday where Hamad said that the type of structure that fell onto the Ville Marie Expressway on Sunday could be removed from all tunnels across Quebec.

Questions and contradictions

Since Sunday, Transport Quebec has offered contradictory and incomplete information about the collapse in the Ville Marie tunnel while changing its story about who is to blame for the cave-in. Andy Riga looks back at what the department has said – and left unsaid – about how 25 tonnes of concrete ended up on the highway. Page A3

Dorval Circle: Why did Transport Quebec wait years to reserve land at heart of dispute and delays? Page A6

Charest stands by Hamad, urges caution in blame game. Page A4 Quebec losing ability to talk constructively about infrastructure. Opinion, Page A17

Tour de l'Île: Nature lovers complete five-day paddle voyage today. Page A7

McGill retains professor after controversy

Following an eight-month investigation, Barbara Sherwin, who was at the centre of a ghostwriting scandal, is still doing her research at the university. Page A11

Montreal director Noël Mitrani brings a deft touch to his slow-burning thriller set in western Canada. Page C1

Alouettes' QB smashes record in Toronto victory

Anthony Calvillo broke the Canadian Football League's all-time passing completions record last night as the Alouettes beat the hapless Toronto Argonauts 36-23. Page B7

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"When a man assumes a public

INDEX

Amie's Mailbox ... B13 Obituaries B14

A place in the sun for everyone.

