

MEXICAN RED EXHIBIT

-  Mexico's Palace of Fine Arts Museum presents Mexican Red: The Cochineal in Art exhibit, a journey exploring the history and impact of the cochineal, a Mexican insect immortalized in the works of the world's most famous painters. bit.ly/2w8szEu
-  The Mexican Red exhibit at the Fine Arts Museum includes 49 works of art from 16 collections in Mexico and 21 from 11 international collections. bit.ly/2jdqK3d
-  The Mexican Red exhibit showcases the use of the Mexican cochineal insect in textiles dating from the pre-Hispanic world to its appearance in the works of the great masters of the 16th-19th centuries. bit.ly/2zrV9in
-  From textiles to the palettes of the great European masters: Mexican Red in the Palace of Fine Arts Museum. bit.ly/2jdqK3d

Source: Ministry of Culture Mexico.mx

38TH WORLD TRAVEL MARKET

-  #LearnMore #Mexico has had great success at the World Travel Market #WTM for the last 34 years by showcasing its wide range of tourism offerings. bit.ly/2hVDh7Y
-  #GoodNews The United Kingdom is the European country that sends the most tourists to #Mexico. It ranks third worldwide. 513,800 British tourists traveled to Mexico in 2016, 7.6% more than in 2015. bit.ly/2hVDh7Y
-  There are currently between 109 and 191 direct flights per month to #Mexico from the United Kingdom, or about 4-6 daily. bit.ly/2hVDh7Y

Source: Tourism Ministry

VERACRUZ REEF SYSTEM

-  In Veracruz, President @EnriquePN witnessed the sinking of the decommissioned navy ship Commodore Manuel Azueta, which will now become an artificial reef for ecotourism and tactical and recreational diving. #LearnMore bit.ly/2zKP9o5
-  #LearnMore about how the reef will become a destination for ecotourism and tactical and recreational diving. #MegadiverseMexico bit.ly/2zKP9o5
-  #GoodNews The ex-Navy M. Azueta ship, now part of the Veracruz Reef System, will protect biodiversity in Veracruz. bit.ly/2yMrrHW

Source: Presidency, Presidency

FOREIGN MINISTRY BLOG

Stuart Gulliver, Group Chief Executive of HSBC Holdings, decorated with the Mexican Order of the Aztec Eagle

The Undersecretary for North America inaugurates the Trilateral Business Development Mission for Women in North America

The Foreign Ministry reports on the Mexican Capital Legal Assistance Program in the U.S.

Official visit of French Foreign Minister Jean-Yves Le Drian

www.gob.mx/sre