

---

29. PUBLICATION AND ADMINISTRATION

Mexico's Objectives

- Consolidating an institutional framework that promotes a transparent publication of the laws, regulations, procedures, and administrative resolutions of general application established in USMCA.

Benefits for Mexico

- This chapter strengthens transparency regarding the information on administrative procedures related to trade and investment, which positively impacts economic operators and the general public's decision-making.

Chapter's Main Provision

- Calls for each country to publish its federal laws and regulations regarding this treaty on a freely accessible internet site (Article 29.2).
- Aims to guarantee certain rights of the due process concerning administrative procedures, including a review in impartial and expedited procedures in judicial or administrative courts (Article 29.3 and Article 29.4).