

Experience the wonders of YUCATAN

2022 Edition

Mérida, the capital of Yucatán, arose from the merger of three major cultures: Mayan, Spanish and Lebanese, that together conferred it with a unique personality palpable in its architecture, cuisine and people. In this magical city, tradition and modernity go hand by hand. Impressive archaeological sites, colonial and modern buildings coexist in harmony.

"The pink lakes in the tiny village of Las Coloradas are unbelievable! It should be on everyone's list! Best way to describe this experience is to say it's more like a magical place full of color. These lakes are a hidden gem in the municipality of Rio Lagartos."
