

MORELOS

EMBASSY OF MEXICO IN THE UNITED STATES – ECONOMIC AFFAIRS OFFICE

EDITION 2021

Follow the footsteps of the ancient Augustinian, Dominican and Franciscan friars when visiting some of the first temples, convents and churches of European styles that were built in the region for the evangelization of the population. Walk the streets of the so-known state of “eternal spring” in a pilgrimage to Mexico's interesting colonial past. Its name comes from its warm, suitable to practice outdoor activities climate.

“[The Tepozteco] was a truly amazing experience. As you ascend up those steps, you are filled with a sort of electricity! I definitely believe this place has a special energetic charge. You must see it when you are in Tepoztlán!”
