BUDAPEST, September 24, 2013. - The mural painting titled "The imaginary of the Mexican textile craftsmen" will adorn the metrostation at Keleti Pályaudvar thanks to the donation of the painter, Julio Carrasco Bretón and the Embassy of Mexico in Budapest to the Municipality of Budapest.

The 6*3 meters big mural was exhibited this February in the Budapest Gallery of the capital and now will be handed over to the Budapest Transport Company BKV to be put into the public area of the station.

The inauguration event will be attended by H.E Isabel Bárbara Téllez Rosete, Ambassador of Mexico to Hungary, Dr. Tamás Szentes, Vice Mayor of The capital of Budapest, Dr. Sándor Bodó Director of the History Museum of Budapest and by Tibor Bolla, Director of BKV.

Please find more information about the painter and his work in the attached file as well as you can view the video about his February exhibition in Budapest on the following link.
