

International Energy Agency

MEXICO JOINS IEA

-  #Mexico has become the 30th member of the International Energy Agency and the first from Latin America. #LearnMore bit.ly/2EyP9WN
-  #DidYouKnow that the @IEA family of members, which now includes #Mexico, produces over 70% of the world's energy supply? bit.ly/2EyP9WN
-  The @IEA will support implementation of #Mexico's #EnergyReform. #LearnMore about the details: bit.ly/2wis73k
-  #Mexico's accession is a cornerstone of the @IEA's ongoing modernization strategy bit.ly/2EyP9WN

Source: Energy Ministry

ENERGY REFORM

-  #LearnMore There have been 8 oil auctions this year with two more to go. In addition, planning is underway for a third auction of unconventional sources of energy in the Burgos Basin in #Tamaulipas. bit.ly/2sDuIqs
-  In October, @Pemex will launch tenders for exploration and production farmouts, strategic partnerships with the state-owned oil and gas company. bit.ly/2sDuIqs
-  #GoodNews two large transmission lines will be tendered and the #UniversalPowerServiceFund will continue installing solar panels and distribution lines to bring more electricity to isolated communities. bit.ly/2sDuIqs
-  Over 180 million pesos from the #UniversalPowerServiceFund will be invested in more than 238 communities to achieve 99% electricity coverage in #Campeche this year. bit.ly/2sDuIqs

Source: Energy Ministry

ORGANIC PRODUCTS

-  #LearnMore Mexican organic food producers and agribusinesses attended #BIOFACH, the most important international trade fair for organic food, in Nuremberg, Germany bit.ly/2FdKKK6
-  Through its Agricultural Market Development and Marketing Services Agency, #Mexico promotes Mexican products around the world by offering a wide range of services and assistance bit.ly/2FdKKK6
-  The acreage dedicated to organic food in Mexico doubled during the current administration bit.ly/2FdKKK6
-  85% of the organic food produced in Mexico is exported to the USA, Germany, France, UK, Canada, Italy, Switzerland and Japan bit.ly/2FdKKK6

Source: Agriculture Ministry