Magical Towns... Tequila

The Magical Town of Tequila in the Jalisco state, declared a World heritage Site by UNESCO in 2006, it's the heart of the industry where the emblematic beverage of the same name is produced with distilleries that have been around since the 18th century (such as Cuervo) and others, but this town is so much more than just a spirit. It's all the warmth of the culture that goes into its flavor, its history and its preparation. Comprising an area of 133.8 square miles filled of a series of landscapes like nowhere else in the world.
